

LISTENERS LOVE WGNS

Here's a small sample of what our listeners tell us daily. To see more, you can visit us and view our file of letters and emails from the public. We have hundreds of positive notes.

"On behalf of the men and women of the Murfreesboro Police Department, I would like to thank you for your excellent live coverage on WGNS of the Peace Officers Memorial Day Ceremony."

- Former Murfreesboro Police Chief Glenn Chrisman

"We love your station and its light in the community."

- State Representative Mike Sparks

"I think WGNS is doing a wonderful job and I deeply appreciate that you let listeners decide what they want to have available to them on-air."

- Sherry Hamlett, Fosterville Resident

"As a regular listener of WGNS, please allow me to congratulate you and your staff on your contributions to local news, keeping Rutherford Countians informed on-air and online."

- Dan Osborne, Murfreesboro Resident

"I wanted to take the time to thank you and your family for the work you do via WGNS. The radio station is a vital information tool serving our local community."

- Former Murfreesboro City Councilman and Advocate Ron Washington

"As a parent of a prep sports athlete, I'd like to thank WGNS for its continued commitment to broadcasting high school sports. I know it's quite a sacrifice for the broadcasters to do so many games and shows, but it's appreciated by me. That's why I've also been a long time sponsor - to support your efforts. Keep it up!"

- Celeste Middleton, Murfreesboro Resident and State Farm Agent

"I appreciate WGNS in so many ways. As a fan of the Truman Show, I appreciate that you also achieve the shows online. By doing this, you're also preserving history and it's a valuable gift to Rutherford County."

- Darryl Lewis, Minister at Crescent Church of Christ

"Thank you WGNS for your help promoting the Special Kids Race, our most successful ever. Thank you for all the radio station does and has done over the years to help get the word out about our organization."

- Ginger Spencer, Special Kids

"On behalf of Read to Succeed, I'd like to thank WGNS for all of your support, work and endeavors to make us a success. We can only help people in our community learn important skills, like reading, with partners like WGNS."

- Lisa Mitchell, Executive Director, Read to Succeed
